polytec are excited to introduce six new solids into our Decorative 16mm doors & panels range, two of which will be available in the Commercial range for large format solutions.

Inspired by Australia from the ground up, this collection of colours draws from the raw, quiet beauty of the land. Each one reflects a sense of place, rooted in earth, shaped by time, softened by nature. From coastal edges and sunburnt plains to cultural stories and aerial impressions, the names evoke a muted, grounded elegance. They speak to polytec's earthy, refined palette and the textures of Australia's natural terrain; subtle, timeless, and deeply connected to country.

Designed as enduring staples, these new colours provide a balanced and versatile foundation for cabinetry and interior joinery. Drawing inspiration from Australia's natural landscape, each hue is intentionally muted and refined, offering timeless appeal across residential and commercial applications.

Suitable for a wide range of interior environments, the Decorative 16mm range delivers a hardwearing, low-maintenance surface that supports everyday use. Easy to clean and consistent in finish, it is ideal for kitchens, wardrobes, workspaces and general joinery where durability and design cohesion are essential.

With the addition of these six new Solids, designers gain greater flexibility to create layered, tonal schemes that integrate seamlessly with polytec's broader decorative surface palette, supporting cohesive, contemporary Australian interiors.
